FCDC
Filipino Community Development Center

Welcome to Bahay Kalinga

Bahay Kalinga means "house of care" in Tagalog. It is a community resource center in SoMa, San Francisco's South of Market Street neighborhood.

The garden patio, Halamanan sa Patyo ("garden on the patio").

Bahay Kalinga sa SoMa is a community resource center at 122 9th Street, run by the Filipino Community Development Corporation (FCDC), a San Francisco nonprofit founded in 2017. It is for neighbors who are unhoused or at risk of losing their housing. It opened on July 1, 2026.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

Four ways to be part of it

If you would like to help, here are three ways to start. Any of them makes a difference.

GIVE

It costs about $62 to run Bahay Kalinga and care for one neighbor for one day. Sponsor a day and put a name on it. Gifts of any size are pooled to support Bahay Kalinga and FCDC's work where the need is greatest.

SPONSOR A NEIGHBOR

GIVE YOUR TIME

Volunteers help serve breakfast, tend the garden, and welcome neighbors.
Email all.info@filipinocdc.org

GIVE GOODS

Our wishlist list what we use every week, such as hygiene supplies, laundry supplies, and socks. We also would appreciate used, clean clothes, shoes and linens.

FUND A PROGRAM

Interested in funding a program or an offering at Bahay Kalinga? Gifts of food or supplies for Breaking Bread, volunteer hours, and funding all help, and they go furthest together. Contact Lorenzo Listana to talk it through: lorenzo.foundingdirector@filipinocdc.org or call (628) 789-2330.

$62 is based on Bahay Kalinga's full operating costs at 35 people a day. Gifts are pooled to support Bahay Kalinga and FCDC's work where the need is greatest.*

Salamat po.

(Thank you, with respect.)

Bahay Kalinga is guided by three Filipino values: malasakit (compassion), kapwa (shared humanity), and bayanihan (community working together).
